

Little Garlic River and Falls - Marquette Area

Trail Length:

8 miles out and back (4-5 hours)

Difficulty:

Intermediate

The trail in spots is rocky, rooty or uneven. There are several very minor climbs and descents along the river, but it is mostly flat. The trail is easy to navigate by following the blue NCT markers.

Trail Head Directions:

It is about a 20 minutes' drive to the Elliot Donnelley trailhead from Marquette center. Drive 10 miles west on Big Bay Road (550) out of Marquette. You will pass over the Little Garlic River on a bridge and the trailhead will almost immediately be on your left where there is a moderately sized parking area.
